None appears for the petitioner.

Mr. Sanjay S Agrawal, Govt. Advocate for the State.

This case has been received on transfer from the High Court of Madhya Pradesh. On 02-02-2005 the Court directed issue of notice by way of SPC to the petitioner to make arrangement for representation.

In compliance with the said order dated 02-02-2005 SPC was issued to the petitioner through the District Judge, Raipur. Thereafter, the case was listed on 13-06-2005 when no one appeared for the petitioner and the Court passed an order directing ~~that~~ the Registry to inform Mr. H.S. Tripathi, Advocate, High Court of Madhya Pradesh, Jabalpur by a registered letter that the case has been listed for final hearing. Pursuant to the said order, Mr. H.S. Tripathi, Advocate, High Court of Madhya Prade has been informed by a registered letter and along with the register letter a copy of order dated 13-06-2005 was enclosed.

When the case was called out for hearing today, no one again appeared for the petitioner, whereas Mr. Sanjay S Agrawal, Govt. Advocate has appeared for the State.

In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, we have no option but to dismiss this petition for non-prosecution and we accordingly do the same.
